It was a special Remembrance Day this year, commemorating the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Armistice, at 11 am, on the 11th day of the 11th month. The civic ceremonies at the Cenotaph in City Park again were well organized by the Royal Canadian Legion to honour those who served and fell during World War 1, World War 2 and the Korean War. As was said, "The brave soldiers fought and died so that we would have the freedom to worship in our synagogues, mosques, temples and churches." The OJC placed a wreath of remembrance at the Cenotaph as we have for years, alongside the other faith communities of Kelowna. At events such as this, we realize how very fortunate we are to be living our free lives in Canada.

The viewing of “The Boys” - THE SHERMAN BROTHERS STORY on November 9th, was a smashing success! OJC presented a documentary about the Sherman brothers, Robert & Richard, the Academy Award and Grammy winning American songwriting duo that specialized in Disney musical films, as part of the Okanagan Jewish Community’s film series.

The showing took place in the Okanagan College Theatre and was shared with about 180 guests. Before the film a reception was held in “the Pit” and everyone who arrived early was able to kibbutz and socialize while being treated to wonderful delights, prepared by Barb Finkleman, and delicious wines, provided by Nagging Doubt Winery.

The film itself was a wonderfully made documentary about the Sherman brothers and the influence they have had on all our lives through music and song. Most people know the Sherman brothers by the impressive silhouettes of Oscar trophies won for Mary Poppins scores but it was interesting to discover how influential they were in making main stream hits for pulp culture icons like the Beach Boys and Ringo Starr. Maybe most impressive was when we learned that, even now in his 90’s, Richard Sherman is still working and even assisted in the score of this weekends release of “Mary Poppins Returns”.

What made this evening extra unique was that the director of “The Boys” (Richard Sherman’s son) Gregory Sherman was in attendance to present the film and answer questions from the audience following the showing. I would like to add a big thank you to Gregg for the extra effort he made to help promote the evening. I know the hours he had in Kelowna with his family were limited so the moments he took to be interviewed were greatly appreciated and defiantly insured that our event was a success.

Thank you to everyone who joined together and to all our volunteers that helped make the evening so memorable.

Plans are underway for more viewings and are looking forward to another amazing event at the Okanagan Film Series 6th presentation. Please watch your emails for upcoming movie nights at Okanagan Community College. Dave

Thank-you to all the following who participated in the Central Okanagan Food Bank “Drive a Client home with their Christmas hampers” on Friday, December 21st. Together we served approximately 3 dozen people with their food boxes. Your help was most appreciated.

Julie Kalashnikoff, Rena Marquez, Philippe Richer Lafleche, Kurt Houlind, Barb & Steven Finkleman, Maureen Mansoor, Sharon Silver Gitlin, Joel Yanow, Leigh-Ann Yanow, Barb Pullan & Don Plant.

We hope to have a similar project in 2019. Please join us!

OJCC Events:

“COFFEE, CAKE AND CULTURAL ANTHROPOLOGY”

The OJC launched a new lecture series in late October with President Steven Finkleman delivering an informative view of Ethiopian Jews.

Through the photos he took of this obscure community while on a medical mission to the Ethiopian highlands in 2010, Steven captivated his audience with a slideshow he narrated with stories, funny asides and history to inaugurate the series Coffee, Cake and Cultural Anthropology.

Now a retired pediatrician, Steven travelled to the Blue Nile region of the African country with a group of doctors and nurses who set up a drop-in surgical clinic to fix congenital facial deformities like cleft lips and cleft palates. While on days off, locals drove him to a rural area near Gondar where Jews have lived for centuries.

Steven photographed devout men wearing kippas during a service and Jewish children in school. He captured the Star of David and Jewish prayers on walls, as well as the Israeli flag and synagogues now abandoned after thousands of Ethiopian Jews emigrated to Israel in 1991.

He described several scenes as “biblical,” pointing to people wearing robes, using staffs and herding donkeys. When the Torah went around the congregation during service, the women ululated, he said. A feeding centre, supported by donations, provided a carrot, potato, egg and roll for each child.

Barb Finkleman provided a banquet table of yummy cakes and other desserts after the presentation. The mood was buoyant as 35 members discussed the talk and marvelled at the quality of the nosh.

The next lecture on Dec. 9 featured Murray Oppertshauer, a retired Canadian diplomat, who served overseas in various postings of the Canadian Foreign Service. He spoke about his work processing Vietnam boat refugees for immigration to Canada during his posting at the embassy in Bangkok. OJC members took a trip around the world with the former Visa Officer as his wife, Victoria, selected the slides to screen.

Murray Oppertshauer showed a rapt audience his photos from a long career that had him based in places like Vienna, Warsaw, Bangkok and Rome. He helped with the first evacuation of Vietnamese people after Saigon fell in 1975. During one 18-month period, his team transported 14,000 people to Canada. “We cranked up the processing,” he said at the Dec. 9 lecture. “At one point we had two 747s coming down a week. They were loaded at 3 a.m. and you had to have a full plane ready to go. The worst scenario was sending an empty seat.”

Other refugees at the time were from Cambodia and Laos. Leader Pol Pot, under whose dictatorship more than 1.5 million Cambodians died, forced thousands to swarm the Thai border in an effort to flee. “The Thai government wouldn’t let them in. They dug a trench and said ‘we’ll shoot you’ if you cross. Border camps sprung up,” he said.

He recounted interviewing Polish detainees at the end of the Solidarity protests around 1990. “They’d come out of jail to the interview,” he said. “One guy told me what he thought of the Polish government ... Another guy said ‘I’m not going to Canada,’ but his wife said ‘the kids and I can’t eat; we’re starving to death. You can stay in jail. We want to go to Canada.’”

Evan Orloff asked how 900 ex-Nazis got into Canada after the Second World War. Some were extradited back to Germany, Oppertshauer said, but most of them had no documentation. “It was a liars’ paradise.” Canada has three criteria for refugees who want to immigrate to the country – family in Canada, medical requirements and a security screening. There are no job-skill requirements, he said.

Oppertshauer agrees with Germany’s immigration policy, despite Chancellor Angela Merkel suffering politically for it, because the flood of refugees – many from Syria – has boosted the German population. Canadians have been xenophobic about newcomers for generations, he said.”

The lecture series resumes in the new year. Stay tuned for topics and dates.

JEWISH HUMOUR & WISDOM

STRESS BUSTERS:

A young lady confidently walked around the room with a raised glass of water while leading a seminar and explaining stress management to her audience.

Everyone knew she was going to ask the ultimate question, “half empty or half full?” She fooled them all. “How heavy is this glass of water?” she inquired with a smile :D.

Answers called out ranged from 8 oz to 20 oz.

She replied, “the absolute weight doesn’t matter. It depends on how long I hold it. If I hold it for a minute, that’s not a problem. If I hold it for an hour, I’ll have an ache in my arm. If I hold it for a day, you’ll have to call an ambulance. In each case it’s the same weight, but the longer I hold it, the heavier it becomes.”

She continued, “and that’s the way it is with stress. If we carry our burdens all the time, sooner or later, as the burden becomes increasingly heavy, we won’t be able to carry on.” “As with the glass of water, you have to put it down for a while and rest before holding it again. When we’re refreshed, we can carry on with the burden—holding stress longer and better each time practiced.”

So, as early in the evening as you can, put all your burdens down. Don’t carry them through the evening and into the night. Pick them up again tomorrow if you must.

- 1. Accept the fact that some days you’re the pigeon, and some days you’re the statue!*
- 2. Always keep your words soft and sweet, just in case you have to eat them!*
- 3. Drive carefully... It’s not only cars that can be recalled by their Maker!*
- 4. If you can’t be kind, at least have the decency to be vague.*
- 5. If you lend someone $20 and never see that person again, it was probably worth it!*
- 6. Never put both feet in your mouth at the same time, because then you won’t have a leg to stand on.*
- 7. Since it’s the early worm that gets eaten by the bird, sleep late.*

AND MOST IMPORTANTLY...

- 8. Save the Earth... It’s the only planet with chocolate!*

Cheese Knishes

Makes about 24

Ingredients

Dough

2 1/2 cups sifted plain flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon low sodium salt
2 eggs, lightly beaten (for dough)
1 egg, lightly beaten (for egg wash)
1/2 cup rapeseed oil
1 tablespoon olive oil
4 tablespoons water

Filling

1 1/2 cups diced shallots
1 tablespoon olive oil
2 cups drained cottage cheese
1 egg
1 teaspoon low sodium salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons low fat crème fraîche

Instructions

Brush a large baking tray with olive oil. Preheat the oven to 190°C.

For the filling:

Heat the oil in a large non-stick pan. Brown the shallots in the oil. Remove the pan from the heat. Beat the cheese, egg, salt, pepper and crème fraîche into the shallots until the mixture is smooth.

For the dough

Sift the flour, baking powder and salt into a large bowl. Make a well in the centre of the flour mixture. Put the eggs, rapeseed oil and water in the centre of the flour mixture. Gradually work the egg mixture into the flour mixture with your hands. Pick up the dough and knead it until it's smooth. Divide the dough in two and roll as thin as possible. Brush with olive oil.

Cut the rolled dough into three-inch circles. Place a tablespoon of the filling on each circle. Brush the inside edges of the circle with the egg wash. Draw the edges together and pinch firmly, using the egg wash to bind.

Place the knishes on the baking tray, pinched edges up.

Bake in the oven for 30 minutes or until lightly browned.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Our year is starting off with excitement, new members, new programs, both cultural and educational, and the prospect of finally having a full-time resident Rabbi to lead our community. Thanks to all those, including our hard working, diligent, executive Rabbi Search Committee, new members, old stalwart members and especially Anne in the office, for helping build our community.

We have recently enjoyed good attendance at our December Saturday morning service, over 80 persons attended our Hannukah party, and we had good support for our two “Coffee, cake and cultural anthropology” events this fall. OJC’s showing of the film “The Boys” at Okanagan College was enjoyed by approximately 180 persons!

For next year, we are excited to be bringing back our Tu B’Shvat seder which is being organized and led by Barb Pullan on Sunday, January 20th. A Taste of Home” event on Saturday, February 2nd, hosted by Kelowna Community Resources will have OJC participation, where we will be one of many Kelowna communities serving typical ethnic foods (cheese knishes anyone?).

In 2019, there will be new intercultural programs led by Philippe Richer LaFleche, to include get togethers with the Kelowna Muslim Community and First Nations, along with other intercultural events. Stay tuned for further “coffee, cake and cultural anthropology” talks—all entertaining and informative. Ladies luncheon, Purim, Passover events along with visiting Rabbinical candidates will be upcoming in 2019. Follow your emails for details of these exciting events.

Please, please participate as much as you are able to. Your attendance and support of the OJC activities is the only way to help build our strong community.
